

Grammar – Present Perfect Tense

Mrs. wafa

Title:
Present Perfect Tense

What is the Present Perfect?

We use it when

- We focus on the action that started in the past and still continues in the present.

Stative Verbs Note:

- We DON'T use stative verbs, like: love, like, believe, know, understand, being.

Structure

Subject + have/has + Been + Verb-ing

I / You / We / They have been playing

He / She / It has been feeling

Subject + haven't/hasn't + Been + Verb-ing

I / You / We / They haven't been playing

He / She / It hasn't been feeling have/has + SUBJECT + Been + Verb-ing + ?

Have I / You / We / They been playing ?

Has He / She / It been crying ?

Examples of Present Perfect Continuous

Action started in the past and continues until now

- 1- I have a new English book for my class
- 2- I have been to London with my family before.
- 3- I am studying English every day at school.

We use this tense to talk about actions that started in the past and are still continuing now.

THiNKs

The word "THiNKs" is the central focus, rendered in a whimsical, hand-drawn style. Each letter is a different color and contains unique patterns: 'T' is red with yellow polka dots, 'H' is solid yellow, 'i' is green with a vertical leaf pattern, 'N' is purple with small heart patterns, 'K' is blue with small star patterns, and 'S' is pink with swirl patterns. The word is surrounded by various decorative elements. Above the word are two yellow stars, a blue swirl, an orange flower, and another yellow star. Below the word are two yellow pencils, a blue swirl, and a yellow flower. The background is a light beige color with faint, scattered decorative elements like stars, flowers, and swirls.